The above information is being provided by Human Resources in conjunction with the sick leave donation process allowing a direct donation from one employee to another employee within the same workstation. This donation according to tax counsel is considered a taxable event for the donor. Eligibility for the donation has been confirmed and the donor has acknowledged the tax implications on the Sick Leave Direct Donation to Another Employee Form. Human Resources has certified the donation eligibility of the donor and recipient and has processed the transaction accordingly. Additionally, the donor department has been consulted regarding the funding source of any potential department expenses.
